

Personal Gear list for Yukon trip '15

NAME: _____

Feet

- ___ sneakers/camp shoes
- ___ socks, 3 pr. These should be wool or synthetic; cotton socks will be useless. Keep one pair just for sleeping.
- ___ rubber boots, knee high **

Legs

- ___ undies, couple pair
- ___ wool/synthetic long johns
- ___ nylon athletic shorts, for that classic shorts-over-long johns look (optional)
- ___ warm pants, fleece or insulated **
- ___ rain pants **

Torso

- ___ Wool/synthetic base layer
- ___ T-shirt (It might be warm enough to wear it!)
- ___ couple more insulating layers, fleece or wool or synthetic
- ___ insulated parka **
- ___ rain parka **
- ___ light wind shell (optional)

Head/Hands

- ___ brimmed hat for sun and rain
- ___ warm winter hat
- ___ a stylin' buff or neckwarmer
- ___ some kind of gloves. Thick insulated winter gloves are too much. If you're an Alaskan with rubberized fishing gloves, they'll do.

Sleeping system

- ___ synthetic bag, 0°F **
- ___ sleeping pad: inflatable is more comfy, but a close cell foam will do. **

Incidentals

- ___ sunglasses
- ___ prescription glasses, if needed
- ___ bandanna/handkerchief
- ___ water bottle
- ___ Health and Beauty Aids (HBA): toothbrush/paste, floss, comb/brush, lip balm, vitamins, packet of baby wipes, sunscreen if you're vulnerable, hand cream. All in small doses.
- ___ pads, tampons, etc.
- ___ notebook and writing tools
- ___ course materials: books, handouts, whatever
- ___ ID, cash, credit card
- ___ insulated mug / small personal thermos
- ___ small flashlight or headlamp

Some optional

- ___ day pack, if it is small and easily packed away.
- ___ chair. 'Crazy Creek' style is okay, but other kinds are fragile and bulky.
- ___ camera
- ___ electronic devices. Let's talk.
- ___ knife, multitool.
- ___ binoculars
- ___ small dry bag
- ___ cards, games
